

CLASS OF 2015

BALLINCOLLIG COMMUNITY SCHOOL

B.C.S

Message from the Principal

These weeks and months begin an exciting new chapter in your lives. You are about to move off into the world and experience all that the world can offer you. No doubt, at the moment, you will be feeling quite a mixture of emotions – looking forward with anticipation while looking back, with some nostalgia, on the years you have spent in BCS.

It is my earnest hope that the foundations set for you and with you here at BCS, both academically and personally, will carry you forward in life. Remember to take pride in where you have come from and in who you are.

You are launching into a world full of opportunity - life is undoubtedly what you make it. You will, of course, meet some challenges along the way – remember that a problem shared is a problem halved.

I wish you all the very best for the future – may it be filled with happiness, good health and good fortune.

Kathleen Lowney,
Principal, May 2015.

Editorial Team

Our time here in BCS has been extraordinary and being part of the editorial team has made our experience of secondary school much more enjoyable. So after many months, the finished product is here. We spent countless meetings rapidly typing, photo-cropping and sometimes disagreeing but we had a bit of fun too! We, the editorial team, would hope that the 2015 yearbook will allow everyone to look back fondly on their post-primary school years in BCS. As you flick through the pages of this yearbook, we hope you will remember all the good times you've had, friendships you've made and the lessons you've learned.

We would also like to take this opportunity to thank Ms Owens for her limitless patience and for guiding us throughout the year.

Best of luck for the future, it has been a pleasure! David O'Brien, Donna Heinen, Claire O'Sullivan, Katlyn Smyth, Paulina Gembutaite and Niamh Sheehan.

SPONSORSHIP

The yearbook committee would like to thank all the sponsors who supported this publication. Without their help the Yearbook would not have been possible.

A WORD FROM THE YEAR HEAD

Ms. Owens

What a small portion of infinite and immeasurable time is allotted to each of us. It is so quickly swallowed up by eternity. And how small is the cloud of earth on which we crawl about. Money has never made anyone rich not any more as salt water can cure a man's thirst. A poor man is not one who has little but one who desires much. If you can just remember that no human condition is ever permanent, then you will not be too overjoyed in good fortune, nor too sorrowful in misfortune. Nothing dries faster than a tear and one joy dispels a hundred cares. While it may be impossible to win every contest Great satisfaction can be achieved from knowing that your course was fair and just. Hide not your talents nor your God-given intelligence for they were created to be used. What good is a sundial that sits in a shade? Your love and your friendship should not be sealed up until your friends are gone. Fill their life with kindness, speak cheering words while their ears can hear them and while their hearts can be filled and made happier by them. Remember all of these things and consider nothing great but this: Nature bids you.

ACCEPT WHAT LIFE BRINGS. AND LIVE IT. FULLY

A SPECIAL WORD OF THANKS

I would like to acknowledge and thank the Editorial Team who started work on this Yearbook in October 2014. They gave up their lunch breaks, met twice weekly and worked hard to produce this excellent publication. It was an honour and a pleasure to work with this team of motivated, positive, pleasant and smart young students. I enjoyed every minute of it. The Editor was a tenacious motivator and kept us all on track...thanks David! They have produced a fantastic Yearbook filled with photos and memories of 6 years in BCS. We hope you enjoy it! Editorial Team: Editor David O'Brien, Photographer Paulina Gembutaite, Claire O'Sullivan, Donna Heinen, Katlyn Smyth, Niamh Sheehan, Ms Owens.

As long ago as 1st year may seem, we will always remember the many incidents of those days. Who can remember the first day we walked into this massive building? That sunny August morning in 2009, we all sat in the 'caf', listening to Ms.Lowney, Mr.Kennelly and Mr.Alcock. All of us together oblivious to the fact that we would be spending the next six years together. Who can remember Mr.Alcock screaming at Peter Kelleher? Ahh, those were the days!

1st year 2009/2010

1ST YEAR

Still Cute..... but not as innocent!

Gone were the lazy, crazy, hazy days of first year and shock and horror were the predominant moods as we realized that there was serious work to be done this year.

2nd Year was a time where the attitudes we held in primary school truly fell away. It was the year we grew up.....children to teenagers.

2nd Year was the year where we began to bond as a year group mainly through the changes in classes and our ski trip.

At the end of second year, we said goodbye to Mr. Alcock as he retired and we began to wonder who would be taking his place in September....??

2ND YEAR

2ND YEAR TRIP TO SWITZERLAND 2011

Life is getting tougher

Well 3rd year started with meeting our new Year Heads; Ms.Owens and Ms.O'Sullivan. We got 2 Year Heads!!!! em.... wonder why???

It certainly had the makings of a boring year but life was never dull for us energetic and enthusiastic 3rd years.

We tried not to stress but we were young and it was the first 'big test' in our minds. We will never forget the first day of the Junior Cert. That Wednesday morning when we faced into English Paper 1. HORRORS.... and sure enough we survived to tell the tale (just as Ms Owens said that we would) and skipped happily into Transition Year a little older and a lot wiser!

3RD YEAR

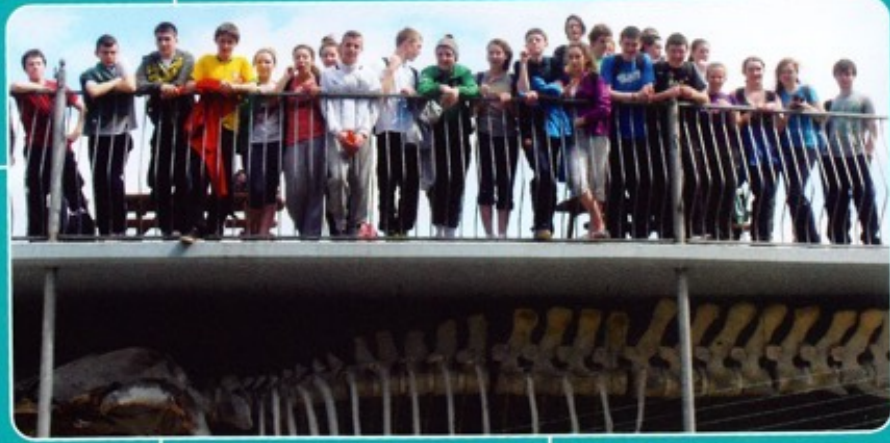

Transition Year

4TH YEAR

The year it all happened
 After the tense wait for the Junior Cert results, our worries were all forgotten as we began 4th year by preparing for our school variety show.
 This year was jam-packed with fun adventures that left us no spare time. Remember the walk we went on to Killarney? We climbed a mountain! Who could forget it, it was the hardest thing we had experienced in life up to that point!
 Delphi, Gaisce, spikeball, archery, charity events the list of things we did... is endless.

Transition Year

Variety Shows

Our year group in the School Variety Shows (2009-2013)

1ST YEAR – Aaron Wills (Singing), Claire O’Sullivan (Piano), Choir, Philip Coleman (guitar)

2ND YEAR- "A Night at the movies" - Aaron Wills, Philip Coleman, Daniel Murphy, Choir

4TH YEAR- "A celebration of Past and Present" – "The We Will Rock You" dance, "BCS GO!" (music module), the dance module, Drama group (including Paul O’Connor and Robert O’Shea) and choir.

5TH YEAR- "Fireworks" - Philip Coleman, Dance (Leah McDonnell, Emily Naughton, Chris McCarthy and Emerald Mata), Aaron Wills (with Niamh Finnegan and Leah McDonnell) and the band (Emily Naughton, Mark Breen, and Daniel Murphy), choir

SPECIAL MENTION to Michael Corcoran, the best soundman in our year group!

Sporting Ventures

Well, to say we were talented, would have been a definite understatement!

5th year 2013/2014

The lack of photos show how in 5th year, things began to get really serious.

Despite the dreaded workload we had to endure, we still managed to have some fun along the way. And then at the end of 5th year another change was announced; Ms. O'Sullivan was leaving us to become Year Head to the incoming 1st Years.

In 5th year, we felt like we were finally going places, going to achieve things, we could see the light at the end of the tunnel, we had an end goal. Things began to get a bit more real...yes some serious thinking and lots of hard work...(for some, at least!)

CALCUTTA TRIP 2014

In February of 5th year, 14 of us along with Mrs Whelan and Mrs Kely travelled to Kolkata, India with the Hope Foundation. It was an unforgettable experience with many highs and lows. We will never forget the smiles on all the children's faces and the craic we had throughout the week.

Students involved: Claire O'Sullivan, Daniel Gavin, John Deasy, Conor Kerns, Ronan Collins, Shane Daly-Butz, Eileen Kelleher, Leah Mc Donnell, Abbey Moor, Rebecca O Donoghue, Treasa O Mahoney, Adele Maxwell, Niamh Finnegan, Suzanna Reck.

Memories

- Mark Breen

What is life but a series of memories? Any period of your life can be taken as its own, specific series of memories that you and only you have. But when you're forced into one building at the age of 12 or 13 with 160 other people your age and you stay with most of them for six years, I think it's safe to say that you end up sharing a lot of memories

I'm not writing this to go into the nitty gritty details about that one time that someone met whoever in 3rd Year. Or when yer man walked into the wrong class in 1st Year (even though that one was hilarious!). I'm here to basically try and capture our 6 years together in a couple of paragraphs, so I don't really have time for the embarrassing detail, as much as I'd love to remind everyone.

In school, you could say that memory is the key. It helps a lot in your exams... sure, but even more so it gives us that special bond as a year group. We all have these shared experiences that nobody else does. Even when you don't remember when it was that something happened or if years blend together for you, you can still say "Hey, remember that?" and have more than 100 other people appreciate the reference.

When we arrived in school in 1st Year I remember that within the first few weeks, we all had to make a drawing of the crest of our primary schools in religion to put up on the wall for the 1st year mass. It seems to me now that back then, everyone seemed to base themselves off of their primary schools. People stuck with other people from their schools a lot of the time and that's just how it was. At that stage, we stuck with those people because of shared primary school memories. In a way, it kept us disconnected as a year group. But now, we're on the other side of it. This time we're leaving secondary school and going into college and now we have the shared memories of BCS. Experiences kept us together as primary school groups in 1st Year, now our experiences from the last six years will keep us together going forward.

And I'm not suggesting all of us will be "bestest buddies" forever and ever. But even though we'll lose touch with some of - hell, probably the majority of people in - our year group, we're going to stay with the people we really connected with during our time here and the people with whom we shared the most (you guessed it, it's the buzz word of this piece!) memories. I believe that there's a phenomenon when it comes to remembering things and people call it nostalgia. It's when you remember the good things and over time forget what was bad about it. Some people think that's naïve. I think it's cynical to think that. To me, nostalgia is a beautiful thing because it lets us forget about the petty parts of something that we probably shouldn't have cared about in the first place anyway. I'm sure everyone has at least one bad experience from school, but I've recently realised that I think it's easy to be mad about something and hold onto the anger, that's where cynicism comes from. It can be much harder to let it go and move on with the happy memories sometimes - but a lot more rewarding.

So as our time together comes to a close, I'll leave you with this final piece which is getting kind of sappy and sentimental, but it has to be done: Take your good experiences with you. Forget the bad ones (you'll be a lot better off). Keep moving forward. And enjoy your life. I speak for me when I say it's been a pleasure and I hope the best for all of you in whatever you hope to do in the future. Thank you, and have good lives.
